

Biography

Lee Brower

Lee Brower is founder and CEO of Empowered Wealth, LC, an international consulting firm headquartered in Bountiful, Utah. With over 30 years' experience, Lee advises successful businesses, families, trusts, foundations, professional athletes, and celebrities on how to protect and empower their human, intellectual, civic, and financial assets.

His paradigm-breaking initiatives have resulted in The Empowered Wealth System*, The Family Empowered Bank* concept, The "Relevant" Living Trust*, and The Quadrant Living System*. These breakthrough innovations have become cornerstones that transition a family's "true wealth" to future generations.

Lee is founder and chairman of The Empowered Wealth TEEM, an international association of Empowered Wealth Architects who are qualified to coach individuals, families, and institutions in establishing unique solutions, strategies, and systems that optimize true assets. Co-author of *Wealth Enhancement & Preservation, he is recognized in Who's Who in the West and Who's Who Worldwide. His new book, Lost In Wealth, is scheduled for publication in fall 2007.

Born and raised in California, Lee attended Brigham Young University and the University of Redlands, where he majored in business administration and Spanish. He also earned the CLU and ChFC designations from American College in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania.

A participant in the Strategic Coach® Program since 1995, Lee is currently in the Strategic Coach® Masters program and also attends Coach2® workshops, an advanced program focused on the unique packaging of the entrepreneurial business. Lee coaches workshops in Chicago and Salt Lake City.

Lee's entrepreneurial pursuits include ownership in several national and international companies that focus on real estate, communication, health, and education. He continues to be actively involved as a founder or board member of numerous charitable, community, and corporate organizations.
